We Dedicate

. . . . . this 1941 edition of the Copa de Oro to Mrs. Helen Orsborn in appreciation of the value she has brought to us as friend and counselor, for her unselfish devotion to students and school, and for the inspirational manner in which she has helped us to progress academically.

Foreword

In our everyday work and play, we the students of this high school enjoy a campus life of vitality, originality, and complexity . . . . . 1940–41 has been an outstanding year for us in many ways, and we have tried to picture it here as we have known it . . . . . with all its activity, its accomplishment, its pleasure . . . . . and, written between the lines, the labor and the sacrifice that come with every full school year.

Dear Carol,
I sincerely wish you everything in the world that is good for you're a sweet girl who surely deserves it.

Campus

Best wishes to a fellow Frosh student
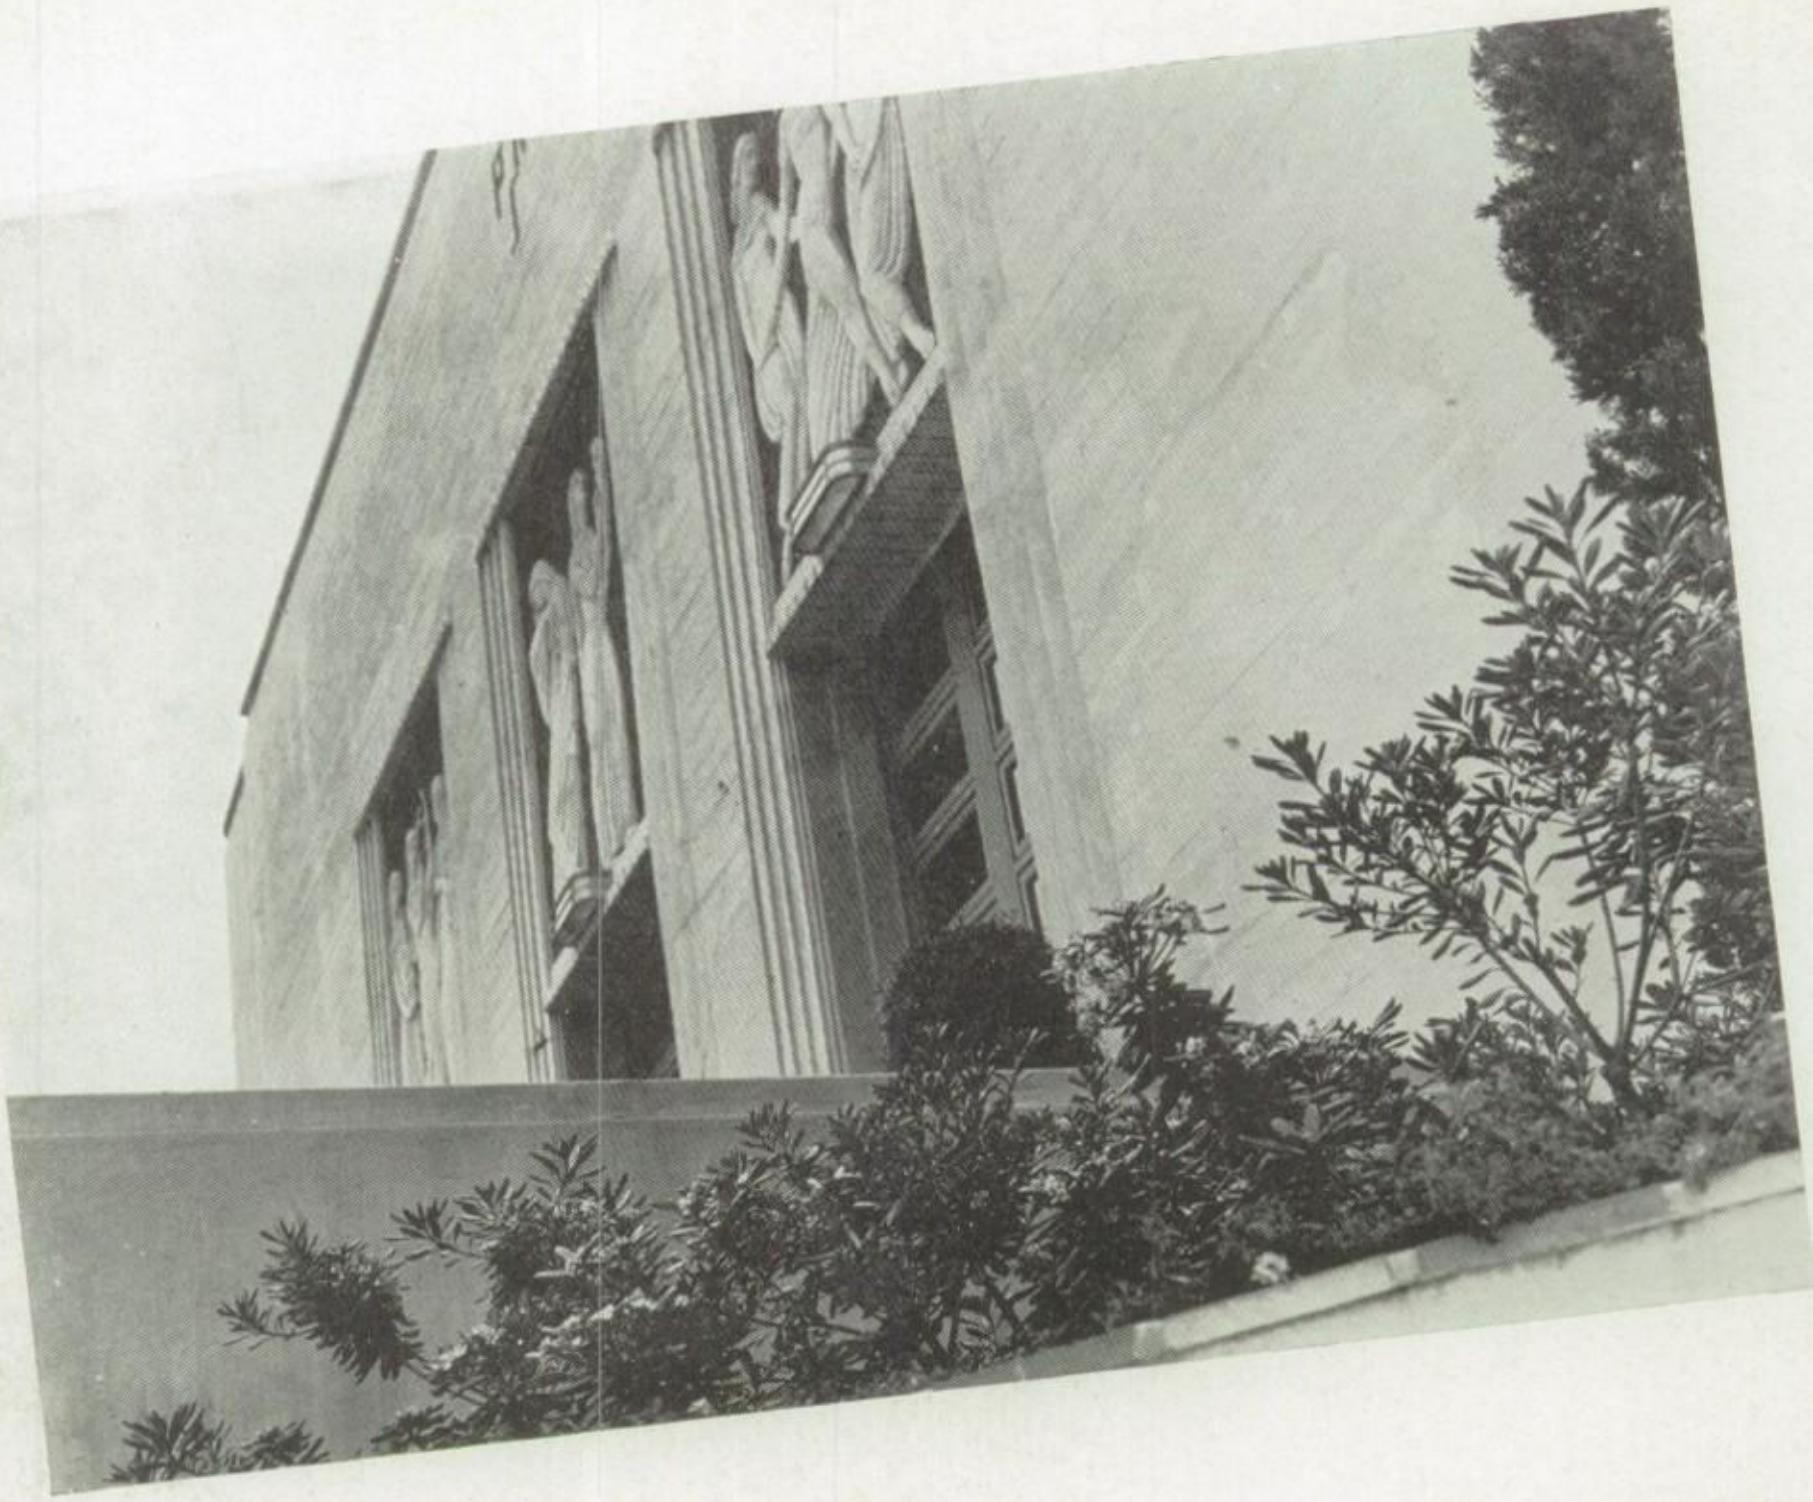
Margy Murphy

The campus beautiful—pride of every loyal student body. Smooth green lawns, stately trees, well-trimmed shrubs, carefully attended courtyards and corridors lend dignity to any school; but more important, they reflect the spirit of the students who attend it.

Realizing this, we as a student body, have endeavored during the past year to maintain the beauty and order of our familiar campus, in order that it might rightfully be called the campus beautiful.



Those Who Guide Us

It is with our sincere best wishes that we say goodbye this year to Miss Edith Waterman, beloved English instructor, who departs for a year's leave of absence. Miss Waterman plans to travel to Boston, for a visit with her invalid mother residing there. In December she will begin a lecture tour throughout Southern California, commenting on a series of movies taken in Alaska.

Administrators

Serving in the capacity of both counselors and friends, four persons have acted as our advisers this past year. Mr. Roy E. Simpson became head of our administrative staff last September, and has proved a very competent superintendent of schools. Mr. Elmer J. Erickson assumed the position of principal, with Mr. James Carpenter taking the post of dean of boys, vacated by Mr. Erickson. In the office of dean of girls, Miss Jessie T. Oldt has supervised the activities of the girls. Mr. Laurence Harper has ably filled the newly created office of assistant superintendent of schools.

Faculty

Returning to school in September, 1940, we found that three new names had been added to the list of already-familiar faculty members. We soon became acquainted with Mr. David Lyman, Mr. Sam Roberts, and Mr. Frank Williamson, and having known them during the past year, we feel that each is a valuable addition to our competent teaching staff. This year, as always, we have gained much from every member of the faculty with whom we have associated, valuing them not only as our academic instructors, but as our friends and counselors.

As we welcomed back our faculty this year, we missed the familiar faces of Miss Bertha Moore, who retired from teaching; Miss Marjorie Brown, who was married in June; and Mrs. Barbara Royce, who left for Hawaii.

In February we had the opportunity to offer our congratulations to Miss Jane Hobensack, secretary in Mr. Erickson's office, when she became Mrs. Albert Kiefer.

Assisting in the history and physical education departments, two student teachers, Miss Lois Howorth and Mr. Robert Mitchell of Whittier College, added their services to SPHS for a part of the last semester.

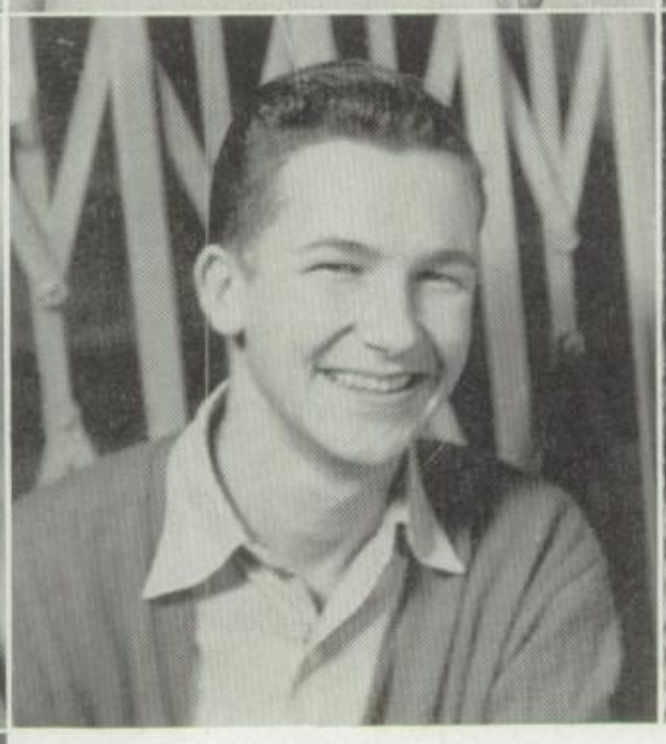
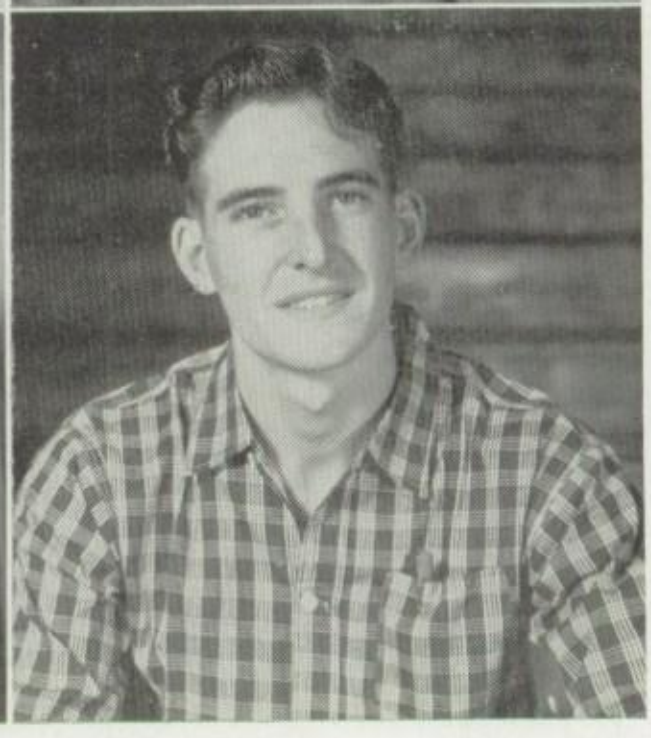
Because his friends have always associated him with his garden, we of South Pasadena have planned to commemorate the life of the late George C. Bush, superintendent of our schools for over thirty years, by laying out a formal sunken garden in the art patio of this school.

A man whose hobby was youth and whose chief interests lay in its welfare was the late John E. Alman, principal of our school for over twenty years. His memory will be perpetuated through the John E. Alman Student Loan Fund, established this year with five hundred dollars in the treasury.





Commissioners

Leading us in student government this year were our seven commissioners headed by Bob Andrews, commissioner-general. Bob was overseer of all functions of the commission and made plans for our assembly programs. Activities of the Girls' and Boys' Leagues were supervised by Harriet Adams, commissioner of girls, and Ken Donnelly, commissioner of boys. Al Buffington, commissioner of athletics, had charge of important matters concerning school athletics, and Wally Giles, commissioner of finance, was our business manager and custodian of A.S.B. funds. Our school was kept beautiful largely through the effort of Bill Hayward, commissioner of the interior. To Louise Walter, commissioner of publicity, fell the task of informing the outside communities of important school affairs.

Class of 1941

At last we have come to the end of our reign as exalted Seniors of Class of '41. Head man this year was Prexy Clark Hunter, who was aided and abetted by Donald Silliker, vice-president; Eleanor Gibbs, secretary; Reg Robinson, treasurer; and Miss Margaret Lauer, adviser. We began our year's activities with a prize winning booth in the Thanksgiving Drive, taking honors for both quality and quantity. Under the banner of soldier blue and navy we received our senior sweaters January 16, and proudly displayed them at the annual sweater assembly, January 17.

One of the highlights of SPHS' dramatic season was our class play "Young April." We froliced at Santa Monica's Riviera Club on Senior Ditch Day, June 5. As a class we have purchased a parting gift for the school, which will be announced at Commencement.

Senior Play

This year's curtain rose on an amusing light-hearted, three-act comedy, "Young April", by Aurania and William Rouverol. The play was presented by the senior class April 29, and pictured the ups and downs of young love.

Seven Tigers

On the basis of leadership, cooperation, good sportsmanship, diligence, personality, and democratic attitude, annually seven Tigers are chosen whose qualities best fit the requirements. The recipients of this award are not disclosed until the annual is issued each year. A committee comprised of students and faculty members selects the seniors who are to receive the honor. This year our winners were Helen Creahan, Evan Goltra, Clark Hunter, Adra Merrill, Margaret Peterson, Stanley Smith, and Jack Williams.

Helen was chairman of the senior color committee, while Evan acted as vice-president of the Boys' League. Clark Hunter lead the seniors as class president, and Adra served as treasurer of the Girls' League. "Petey", vice-president of the Girls' League, was also a winner of the Weldon Fair Play Award. Stan managed the varsity football and basketball teams, and Jack was secretary of the Boys' League.

Weldon Fair Play

Established in 1929 by Mr. W. R. H. Weldon, this award is given to the six seniors who are believed to be the most representative of our class. Typifying the epitome of fair play in all our school activities, the winners are presented at our annual Weldon Fair Play assembly. They are awarded gold pins and certificates, and their names are engraved upon the Fair Play cup. A committee comprised of twelve students and thirteen faculty members votes annually three boys and three girls to receive this honor.

Our winners this year were Donna Swayze, editor of the Copa de Oro; Margaret Peterson, vice-president of the Girls' League; Emy Lou MacIlwain, vice-president of the Bengals; Robert Graff, editor of the Tiger; Jim Eckels, treasurer of the Boys' League; and David Porter, captain of the basketball team.

The presentation of the award was made by Mr. Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of schools.

Announcements: Simons, Morrissey, Ruth, Howarth.
Color: Strong, Hoag,, Speik, Creahan, Buehler.

Dress: Hargrave, Maxwell, Beaman, Ukropina, Wald, Dulin, Eckels, Lincoln.
Flowers: Peterson, Way, Thompson, Kober.

Committees

Our announcement committee had the task of chosing the announcements we used at graduation, while the commencement dress was chosen by the dress committees. Since the color committee chose the class colors at the beginning of the year, the flower committee matched the colors as nearly as possible in flowers for graduation. The gift committee chose our class gift to the school, while the plans and location for "ditch-day" were worked out by the senior day committee. The senior play committee chose our play, "Young April", and our outstanding class leaders, the Seven Tigers, were selected by the committee of Seven Tigers. While the sweater committee was deciding upon the style of our senior sweaters, the senior Thanksgiving booth theme and decorations were being planned by the Thanksgiving Committee.

Gift: Goltra, Hayward, Falconer, Peachman.
Senior Play: Bean, Lytle, Hunter

Seven Tigers: Nairne, Hitchcock, Merrill, Egan, Kruger, Williams, Osborne. Not in picture, Marshall.
Sweaters: Grantham, Bond, Bullock. Not in picture, Lorenz, Barker.
Thanksgiving: Konno, deGaston, Perine, Humann. Not in picture, Silliker.

Commencement

Again Commencement approaches, an impressive climax to high school life and a fitting introduction to the future. To the strains of Sir Edward Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance", played by the string ensemble, we, the graduating seniors, in solemn procession, will file beneath the colorful floral arches held by the junior girls, and into our places on the stand.

The program will include a violin solo by Frances Ford, senior, and a song by the senior vocal ensemble. Betty Speik and Robert Andrews have been chosen from among the gradutes as our class speakers. The principal speaker of the day will be Dr. Frank Baxter, of the University of Southern California, who will speak on "New Horizons". On behalf of the graduates, Clark Hunter, president of our senior class, will give a brief talk before presenting our farewell class gift to the school.

Just three-fourths of the way! Our last year looms ahead of us as we regretfully leave our junior year behind with the satisfied feeling of a job well done. Led by our president, Stuart Inglis, and helped over rough spots by our adviser, Mr. Arthur Paul Huntington, we elected our officers: Carl Long, vice-president; Ruth Maxwell, secretary; and Donovan Davis, treasurer. This year the hard work and ingenuity of our Thanksgiving Booth Committee won for us the second prize in the annual Thanksgiving drive. Serving on the Weldon Fair Play Award Committee was an honor enjoyed by eight of our number. The romantic junior-senior prom on June 14 was our farewell salute to the seniors. On Commencement Day the girls of the class held flower-covered arches for the procession of graduating seniors, concluding the activities of this, our junior year.

Dear Carol, Good luck - in Gym? we have fun Mary Hall

Class of 1943

Our sophomore class counts among its number some of the student body's whitest hopes for success in the academic, political and social whirl of campus activities. Smoothly shifting our political career into high gear, we handed Dick Vanderhoof the gavel and chose our other leaders, Dick Jones, vice-president; Lois Lee Knight, secretary; and Norman Schieber, treasurer; with Miss Vera Thomas, our adviser, keeping the wheels of progress turning.

Throwing our weight behind the civil identification program, our class assumed the responsibility of a school-wide fingerprinting project under the chairmanship of Campbell Gilliland. The coveted honor of gracing the Weldon Fair Play Award Committee was enjoyed by four of our classmates, Lois Lee Knight, Emily Ford, Dick Jones, and Norman Schieber. Decorating the graduation stands at commencement time, we took backward over an active year and forward to a summer of relaxation and sunburn.

Freshmen

The familiar cry of "Hi Freshie" carelessly greeted us when we came up from the Junior High in February and humbly took over the role of the lowly freshmen, youngest element in the South Pasadena San Marino Senior High School. With Miss Oldt, dean of girls, and Mr. Carpenter, dean of boys, at the helm to steer a straight course, our long and stormy career in high school was successfully launched. The captaincy of H.M.S. '44 was bestowed upon Eugene Arnett with Mason Rothenberg second in command. The ship's log was kept up to date by Bobby Joe Scott, and the money bags were controlled by Patsy Hargitt. Reaching port in June, we report a safe but eventful voyage.

Girls' League

The Girls' League stands for friendship and democracy above all. It tries to instill the ideas of courtesy of speech and manners, simplicity, loyalty, and honor in all girls. Every girl in school is a member.

Chosen as our officers this year were: president, Harriet Adams; vice-president, Margaret Peterson; secretary, Jayne Egge; and treasurer, Adra Merrill. Maralyn Arnett was our senior representative and Dorothy Herbert, Barbara Ristrom, and Jane Hayward our junior, sophomore and freshmen representatives, respectively.

We held half-hour assemblies each month with the girls meeting as a body in the auditorium or in smaller committees. The following people acted as committee chairmen this year: Dorothy Cline, Athletic; Verna Pace, Career; Marcia Legere, Career; Peggy Lorenz, Courtesy; Ruth Barker, Dress; Anne Deems, Entertainment; Peggy Lou Williams, Entertainment; Charlotte Reinhold, New Girls; Jane Peachman, Refreshment; Barbara Johnston, School Beautiful; Janey Smith, Social Service; and Adra Merrill, Ways and Means.

We sponsored this year a backwards dance, a Thanksgiving assembly, class teas for mothers, vocational talks for the entire school, a tea for the faculty, "Hello" Day, a tea for the senior girls, and our calendar sale.

Boys' League

Numbering every boy in the student body as a member, the Boys' League this year has figured prominently in school activities. Ken Donnelly has served us as president, and other officers have included Evan Goltra, vice-president; Jack Williams, secretary; and Jim Eckels, treasurer. Acting as committee chairmen were: Outdoor Life, Ned Long; Archery, Fencing and Golf, David Porter; Athletics, Bob DeWeese; Aviation, Bruce Hayes; Business, Bill Nairne; First Aid and Lifesaving, Bruce Kenson; Marine, Charles Kober; Machine, Haze Wallace; National Defense, Paul Bullock; Photography, Donald Brett; Radio and Electricity, Dick Kuck; Popular Orchestra, Sid Jones; Science, Stan Smith; World Affairs, William Bean.

We met the first Tuesday in each month, alternating three meetings in the auditorium with three group meetings of the fourteen committees. The Cabinet of the League, composed of the officers and the committee heads, celebrated at the half-way point in their successful season in company with the Girls' League Cabinet, at a combination progressive dinner-theater party and dance, on April 18. Saturday night, May 17, every boy was "drafted" for the annual Boys' League dance, this year planned around the theme of National Defense.

Bengals

Ready to serve at all times; as ushers, acting as guides, or in any other way we can be of assistance is the aim of the Bengals, honorary service organization of the school. This year Polly Egan was our president; Emy Lou MacIlwain, vice-president; Betty Speik, secretary; Don Harnish, treasurer; and Miss Hester Lauman was our adviser.

We started our year by ushering at the football games and held two buffet suppers at the homes of Miss Lauman and Mary Carol Walberg. On May 27 we staged our big "cotton and cords" dance with everything ruling in farm style. The orchestra played from a hay wagon and dancers entered onto the floor over a pig stile. We announced our new members in the May 29 assembly, and concluded our year with a new members' party in May.

Dear Carol: Had a swell time together. I will always remember our fun. Love Emma Gimmel

Service

"To keep the campus clean and presentable at all times" has been the aim of the Campus Committee this year. The committee was composed of two groups of students representing all three classes, with Evan Goltra heading the boys and Margaret Peterson the girls. Bill Hayward acted as our general chairman. In addition to our campus duties, the members of the committee enjoyed a pot luck supper in December.

Acting as a coordinating agency for school organizations concerned with world friendship and social service, the Red Cross Council has seen a year of worthwhile activity. Among other things, we managed the March of Dimes and Community Chest campaigns, cooperated on the World Friendship Banquet, sent menu covers to the Fleet at Thanksgiving and Christmas, worked out a system of exits during fire drills, and presented the assembly of May 16. Walter Reinhold was our delegate to the annual convention at Washington, D. C. in April.

The Tiger

The general clamor that arose on the few occasions that The Tiger was issued a day late is evidence of the importance of our weekly newspaper in campus life. The Tiger is published by a staff of students who have taken the journalism course and have received recommended grades; and all the writing of copy is done by members of the cub journalism class. In order to give all staff members an opportunity to work on each of the four pages, staff positions are frequently changed. This year Bob Graff served as editor-in-chief for both semesters, with Barbara Grantham as business manager. Mr. Elmer H. Crook has been our instructor and adviser.

This year a new method of enrolling students for the staff was inaugurated. Journalism, formerly a year course, was shortened to cover only a semester, and in February fourteen eligible cubs were installed as official Tiger staff members. These students are the first juniors ever to receive positions on the staff.

Staff members and cub reporters who receive recommended grades and whose writing has been approved are eligible to join the Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists. Officers of our chapter for the past year were Margaret Utz, president; Barbara Grantham, vice-president; and Peggy Humann, secretary-treasurer.

"Tiger Topics", a newsreel of school events in two annual editions, is sponsored by the Tiger staff and supervised by Mr. Crook.

The Copa de Oro

Planning lay-outs, checking lists, cutting pictures, pasting panels, reading proof—such have been a few of the many tasks that have occupied the hands and minds of the Copa de Oro staff in producing this 1941 annual. Handling executive details of the book were editor-in-chief, Donna Swayze and Mr. Elmer Crook, general adviser. Dick McAfee took charge of the business problems which arose during the year. Responsible for the physical appearance of the book are Gloria deGaston, art editor, and our art adviser, Miss Archine Van Norden. Both were consulted on all questions of design policy. Assisting Gloria was Barbara Upshaw, creator of the clay figures used in the division page pictures.

Other members of the staff were Barbara Grantham, senior class editor; Peggy Humann, who served both as underclasses editor and advertising manager; Natalie Nelson, organizations editor, and her assistant, Joan Falconer; Stan Smith, boys' sports editor, aided by Ellwin Lambert; Margaret Utz, girls' sports editor, and Marjorie Cline, assistant; Dorothy Cline and Doris Colt, school life editors; and Charles Ashcroft and George Hall, photographers. Special mention should go to junior assistants Mildred Magee, Dorothy Herbert, Margaret Mead, Marcia Legere, John Benton, and Grace Atkinson; and to the many students who helped to collect ads, and to the many salesmen.

Scholarship

An honor which nearly all of us hope to receive and which over 240 of us actually do attain each year is membership in the Scholarship Society. This privilege is earned through grade points, with a minimum requirement of five points a semester. Grades of "one" are counted as two points, and grades of "two" counted as one point. A grade lower than a "two" is not acceptable for counting. Those students who meet these requirements for three consecutive years are given the title of Three Year Honor Students, and do not have to take senior finals. The names of these students are engraved on a permanent plaque exhibited in the main hall.

Although we hold only three or four meetings a year, we manage to carry out several important activities. We presented the assembly of April 25, when movies were shown of the Hancock Scientific Expedition. Officiating as president of the organization this year was Charles Martin, with Ken Galpin, vice-president; Frank Dickey, secretary; and Mary Helen Hoag, treasurer. Mrs. M. Olwen Pettit acted as our adviser.

Le Cercle Francais

It was an interested and enthusiastic throng that filled the visual education auditorium on one Wednesday afternoon of each month for the regular meetings of Le Cercle Francais. Carrying out the club's aim of making the French language more interesting to students, our meetings abounded in entertainment featuring student participation. Those of us who were present at the meeting of January 15 will not soon forget the quiz show conducted by Dave Bradburn which was recorded and played back later in the meeting!

Officers Jack Bradford, Dorothy Hancock, Kay Hutchinson, and Alexander Scrim, and our adviser, Miss Mildred Price, have seen the organization of 175 French students through a successful year of activities, which have included a French-Spanish Supper, a French picnic, and the annual French Banquet.

El Club Galdos

Under the leadership of Don Bowlus, president; Rosemary Flohr, vice-president; Marjorie Beaman, secretary; Peter Inskeep, treasurer, and Miss Nadia Tupica; our adviser, we of El Club Galdos have enjoyed a full year.

Highlight of the season was the day we received our gold and red enamel pins, which we proudly display on our sweaters. Each month on a Monday afternoon we gathered together and were entertained by speakers or movies on Mexico or Latin America. One of our outstanding meetings was held on March 18, when El Club Jarabe presented Mexican, Yucatan, and Mayan folk dances. On February 5 we ate and laughed with the French students at the French-Spanish Supper. Our picnic in June concluded a gala club year.

Comes Club

Surviving a strenuous initiation, we were admitted to the Comes Club, led by George Kinkle, president; Charles Martin, vice-president; Emily Ford, secretary; Howard Annin, treasurer; Mary Elms, historian; and Miss Elizabeth Hoag, adviser. Frantically we burned the midnight oil over our projects, proudly we displayed our finished work, and breathlessly we awaited announcement of the prizes. We donned robes and togas for the Latin Banquet, under the direction of Virginia Soper, social chairman. We ransacked magazines and newspapers for clippings to add to our collection of articles dealing with the Roman life and language, and in "Information Please" sessions we puzzled over questions taken from them. In the spring we enjoyed a picnic and a trip to the Huntington Library.

Art Club

When the forty-two members of the Art Club met on the second Wednesday of each month, plans for some important club event were always resultant. In order to raise money for the annual Vanna Peters Art Scholarship, we made and sold Christmas cards, held a Fashion Show, and had charge of the candy and lemonade stands on May Day. To further our aesthetic interests, we made a sketching trip to the Baldwin Estate, and attended an art exhibit at Exposition Park.

Club officers for the year were Emma Jeanne Bird, Annabee Small, Lucy Ozone, and Beatrice Baumgarten. Miss Hester Lauman and Miss Archine Van Norden acted as our advisers.

Peter Pan

With the elevation of educational dramatics in the high school as its keynote, and a group of enthusiastic drama students to give it action, the Peter Pan Players group has whirled through one of its busiest and most successful seasons. As our first activity of the year, we held a tea in the fall for the purpose of recruiting new members. As a result, we began the year with thirty-five members. We introduced the Yuletide season with our presentation of the familiar Christmas pageant, "Why the Chimes Rang". The annual Peter Pan Players assembly was the occasion of "Command Performance", a one-act drama with an East Indian setting. We enlarged our treasury very successfully through a cake sale and the sponsorship of a lecture and movie by Captain Dwight Long.

Barbara Wald enacted the title role in our spring production, Charlotte Bronte's "Jane Eyre", presented on May 24 in the auditorium. Later in the spring we frolicked at Indian Springs at our picnic given jointly with the Senate Club. Our leaders for the year have been Alice Morrissey, president; Pat Whittemore, vice-president; Betty Truesdail, secretary; Mary Lou Patton, treasurer; and Miss Amy R. Foote, adviser.

Senate

On the third Tuesday of each month we of the Senate Club gathered together and held our meetings. Dick Jenness was our president; Janet McNeill, vice-president; Virginia Anderson, secretary; Ruth Anders, treasurer; Alex Pond, parliamentarian; Brenton Wilson, sergeant-at-arms; and Miss Amy R. Foote acted as adviser.

On October 15 we held our first meeting of the year, at which the more talented members of the club presented an amateur show. Paul Holderman, a former newspaper correspondent, spoke to us on November 12 and told us of his experiences in China when he was a representative of a prominent German newspaper. On January 17, Marcia Legere, Virginia Soper, Donal Duncan, Walter Ogier, Frances Stevenson, Dorothy Sigler, David Green, Joyce Eshoo, and Paul Bullock, expressed their views on "Aid to Britain" in our student panel.

All of us remember the paper drive that we had on March 22 to pay for an animal lecture by Mr. James Donaldson who brought with him, among other oddities, a twenty-two foot python.

"Once a Senator, always a Senator", our slogan, proved true when we held our annual picnic in June, for many public speaking students of past years joined us in this occasion which officially closed our club year.

Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs

Under the direction of Mr. Albert J. Adams, the Boys' Glee Club was a frequent contributor to school and community entertainment this year. Of particular importance among the club's performances were taking part in the Christmas Pageant and the assembly of April 4, in which we shared honors with the Girls' Glee Club, and a glee club contest at Whittier on May 7. We also appeared before the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and at a Methodist Church program, given on May 4.

Presiding over the twenty-three members of the Boys' Glee Club this year was Bruce Hayes. He was supported by Dave Picton as vice-president-secretary, and Stan Lodter as treasurer.

We of the Girls' Glee Club met each second period to perfect the numbers we performed on many different occasions. Besides singing for several assembly programs, the Thanksgiving and Christmas pageants, and other school activities, we participated in a joint concert of the junior and senior high schools, and presented an afternoon musical in May. Also, we travelled to Whittier to perform at the Glee Club Festival there.

The forty-four members were under the direction of Mr. David Lyman. Our president was Jane Smith and the other officers were Carol Ray Yates, vice-president; Muriel Royce, secretary; Barbara Varnum, treasurer; Nancy McEniry and Kathleen Blatz, librarians. Beverly Norton was our accompanist.

Band Ensemble

Marching last Color Day when the mercury hit 105° in the shade is one activity the band will never forget. However, we have many other memorable events to recall, such as winning first place in the PJC Pageant last October and marching in the Tournament of Roses Parade. Also, we traveled to the Band Festival at Ontario in April and secured second place honors there.

Including the majorettes, Mary Johnson, Gloria Schwabland, and Pat Dawson, there were sixty in the organization, who met each week day morning before school with our director, Mr. Charles A. Mendenhall. The officers for the year were Sid Jones, president; Al Hunt, vice-president; Dick Henry, secretary; Frank Brooks, treasurer; and Stanley Lodter, librarian.

Dressed in new blue uniforms, the string ensemble appeared this year at two assemblies, besides giving performances for many other groups, including the Eastern Star, Kiwanis, and Rotary Clubs. We are very proud to have attained a higher record in the number of programs we presented than any other instrumental group in the school's history.

Marjorie Fletcher was our president and served as student director. Vivian Presco was vice-president, while Margaret Gustafson acted as secretary and treasurer. The sixteen members met every third period with our director, Mr. A. Paul Huntington.

Commercial

A knowledge of business procedure by experience is provided by the commercial department. All student body money is handled through the commercial office, which is organized like a regular bank.

The bookstore provides a convenient place where students may obtain classroom supplies. It is operated on a non-profit basis, and members of the office training class act as clerks. Bill Harper was student manager. A contest was sponsored this year by the bookstore, in which free annuals were given to several students. One hunderd votes were given for every purchase of ten cents. Bob Parsons, Stuart Keen, Hamilton Langley, and Peter Pfeiffer were the winners of free annuals. Adviser of the commercial office and the bookstore is Mr. H. Guy Wood.

Savings cashiers are chosen from each first period class to take charge of students' weekly savings deposits. Miss Lucille Linn acts as adviser.

El Dorado Library

The library is an essential part of our school's program, and as such requires the assistance of many students. This help comes from two groups, the Library Council and the El Dorado Club.

The former organization is composed of thirty students appointed by the Commissioner of Interior, whose chief task is to help maintain order in the library by reminding students of their responsibility. The council also takes charge of checking in the Book Room, and secures attendants for the Reference Room and the Browsing Room. Our chairman this year was Frances Ford.

We twelve girls who comprised the El Dorado Club met the first Thursday of each month with our adviser, Miss Hope Potter, and our officers, Ida Lou Saylor, Phyllis Rogers, and Sally Callahan. During the year we made interesting excursions to the Los Angeles County Library, the Pacific Library Bindery, and the Los Angeles Public Library.

Allied Youth

To show that high school students can have a good time without the use of alcoholic beverages, and to further alcohol education is the aim of the Allied Youth Organization. Our chapter, under the supervision of Mrs. Helen Osborn, has been very active this year, and we enjoyed ourselves thoroughly.

One of the first activities was the skating party at the Pasadena Winter Gardens. During the year we held four regular meetings, including the initiation and various speakers. We also sponsored a school dance and an assembly. In November our chapter was visited by W. Roy Breg, an A.Y. official.

Our president was Barbara Wald; our vice-president, Glenn Lashbrook; secretary, Nancy MacGregor; treasurer, Donald Lord; council member Haze Wallace.

Hi-Y Clubs

Three Hi-Y clubs started out this year and were so successful in their activities that a fourth chapter was organized before the year ended.

One of the biggest events was the banquet we held on December 3 to honor Coach Frank Williamson and the Varsity football team. We sponsored a school dance this year as well as holding many small ones at the "Y" cabin. During the football season we supplied the spectators with programs.

The senior chapter was lead by Mr. Howard Snyder and chose Evan Goltra as president, while the junior chapter was lead by Mr. Sam Roberts and chose Donovan Davis as its president. Mr. Roland Taylor lead the sophomore chapter over which Alan Dale presided. The newest chapter had Mr. Charles Monroe as adviser and Peter Farley as president.

Tri-Y Clubs

Our Tri-Y organization has become so popular that this year it was necessary to form four clubs instead of the usual one. The seniors filled one chapter, the juniors another and the sophomores took over two. Although in separate groups, our purpose was the same, "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character".

Besides working as a service organization for others, we found time to enjoy ourselves with picnics and parties, such as the annual banquet we held with the boys of the Hi-Y groups.

The senior adviser was Miss Thelma Beggs and the president was Phyllis Robertson. The juniors were organized with Miss Hannah Dyste as adviser and Marjorie Fletcher as president. One group of sophomores was supervised by Miss Hope Potter and lead by Kathryn Ogier and the other by Miss Vera Thomas and Betty McFarland.

Workers

As part of the National Youth Administration, students who wish to earn part of their school expenses, serve at noons in the cafeteria as helpers of Mrs. Lindsay.

Important in the growing use of visual education in our high school are the students who volunteer to operate the projection machines for the films which are shown to classes during each day. Mr. A. Paul Huntington directs this group.

Students taking the printing course, with Mr. Ben Henry as instructor, have charge of turning out the weekly newspaper, The Tiger. Working in cooperation with the Tiger staff, we spend long hours in the print shop attending to the technical details of producing a newspaper.

It is the task of the stage crew to take charge of the general maintainance of all stage equipment used in our weekly assemblies and other entertainments given in the auditorium. This year we also constructed sets used in student dramatic productions. Mr. Edgar Jacobs supervised our work.

Varsity Football

Frank Williamson, former star USC grid guard in his first year at South Pasadena, developed the Tiger varsity's 1940 edition into one of the most sportive and well-rounded elevens the Black and Orange has had on the gridiron in nearly a decade. Among the honors bestowed on the squad was the selection of Co-Captain Ken Donnelly, left end, and Dave Porter, right tackle, on the all-SGVL team. Bob Andrews, quarterback; Jack Rufer, left tackle; and Co-Captain Ed Tufts landed berths on the second team. (Continued on Page 92)

Early season stage-fright resulted in the Tigers losing the season's opener, SAN FERNANDO 12, SOUTH PASADENA 7. In the P.-T.A. Milk Fund Circus in the Rose Bowl, the Bengals romped over Mark Keppel 6 to 0 in their twenty-minute "quarter". The nimble toes and agile fingers of Bob Hanson, ace Bullpup fullback, proved the winning factor in the tilt with P.J.C. Lower Division; result—P.J.C. 7, SOUTH PASADENA 6. Bogging down after easily scoring six points on their first series of downs, the initial league encounter was dropped with the score COVINA 13, SOUTH PASADENA 6.

The Tiger eleven earned its largest margin at the expense of the hapless Oilers, SOUTH PAS 19, MONTEBELLO 0. The Wildcats cut loose with an aerial "blitz" in winning MONROVIA 13, SOUTH PASADENA 0, in the Tigers' final home appearance. Captain-elect Tom Fleischman ran, kicked and passed his team to victory, SOUTH PAS 6, BURBANK 0. Climaxing the season with a brilliant win over the highly-rated Lions, the Tigers played their best game in years, resulting in SOUTH PASADENA 21, EL MONTE 19.

Bee Football

With his perennial efficiency, Coach C. Merrill Green again, during the 1940 season, developed the usual large group of inexperienced and immature Bee football aspirants into the smoothest-running, light-weight outfit in the league. Unfortunately, however, in the closing league contest, the team tied the El Monte Lions 6 to 6 in a game that left some doubt as to the validity of the decision. The Tiger Bees steadily improved as the season progressed, and had one of the best passing attacks in the Southland. Ned Long, Ray Taylor, and George Mosher were individually outstanding, but the entire squad functioned as a "fighting" unit. The Tigerkittens finished in third place in league competition.

Varsity Basketball

In the face of injuries at times threatening the whole first string, the varsity basketball squad nevertheless managed to have a fairly successful season under the mentorship of Coach C. Merrill Green. Two returning lettermen, Bill Nairne and Captain Dave Porter, were present at the start of the season. These men, with Kenny Galpin up from the Bee squad, formed the nucleus of the team. Besides Nairne, Bob Andrews, Carl Long, and Datus Brown held down the forward positions. Kenny Galpin was first-string center with Bob Morley in reserve. With Dave Porter in the lead, the guards were Bud Dickey, Dave Wickham and Bill Harper.

Captain Porter, a three-year letterman, was all-league guard, playing consistently fine ball. Kenny Galpin, all-league center, broke the scoring record set by Armor Killingsworth of last year's champions, in the league opener. Toward the first of the season, Ted Kruger, a very promising candidate for forward, was taken out by an injury. Bill Nairne suffered a knee injury later on.

Playing the league circuit, the casabamen met each team twice. They beat Covina twice, 57-18 and 28-26. They lost to Montebello 20-18, then turned and won, 20-16. Monrovia managed to overcome them both times, 42-34 and 37-33, as did Burbank, 27-17 and 41-25. El Monte squeezed out a victory in the first meeting, 34-23, but was unable to hold back the inspired Tiger onslaught in the last, losing 43-33.

Bee Basketball

Climaxing a highly successful season, the Bee casaba squad edged its way into the third place niche of the San Gabriel Valley League. It was a season that was quite unsurpassed in "spectacularism", as the Tigerkits won most of their games in the very last few seconds of play. Winning seven and dropping three league tilts, they came out a close second to El Monte.

Coach Roland R. Taylor was in an enviable position, possessing two full strings of players who were good enough to play first string, alternating throughout the season. The men on these two phenomenal teams were Smith, Vanderhoof, Cochrane, and Gerhart at forward, Captain Byrne and Rider at the pivot post, and Worth, Wickham, Henry, and Lawson at guard. All of them earned letters.

Numerous thrillers, mainly with Covina and El Monte, marked the somewhat hectic course of the season. Montebello proved to be the chief Tigerkit Waterloo, as in the first meeting the Wildcats ran up a 32-19 victory, and in the second ran wild, ringing up 57 points to the Bengal-babes' 27. The Kits also were defeated in their first tilt with Montebello 29-27. The unusual feature of the season was that almost all of the games were won by a margin of not more than seven or eight points.

Cee Champions

For the first time in the school's history, the Cee basketball team, under the direction of Arthur "Doc" Bothe has won the league championship. Suffering only two defeats, both accredited to over-confidence, the "Mighty Midgets" won eight of their ten games.

High-point man for the season was Captain Arnold Otis, who by way of twenty-two field goals and seven free throws amassed a total of fifty-one points, with Frank Frericks and Marvin McClain following in that order.

The Cees' season was marked by an undisputable demonstration of superiority over all comers. Their two defeats, a practice re-match with Alhambra and the second tilt with El Monte, were directly accredited to over-confidence. The El Monte game was the classic of the season, the final score 19-18.

Otis, McClain, and Pete Welsh saw service as forwards; Frank Frericks held down the center post; and Bill Yamanaka, Donovan Davis, Henley Odano, and John Porter were at guard. As few schools have Dee teams, the South Pasadena Dees were utilized to bolster the reserves of the Cees.

Track and Field

New practicing facilities and a vastly improved spirit, in both the team members and the student body, enabled South Pasadena-San Marino High School to produce one of its most versatile and able track and field aggregations to date. Not only did the teams as units give fine showing, but among the individuals there were several standouts.

In the varsity division, Captain Evan Goltra paced his team, consistently taking the highest honors with his league-championship 880-yard run at 2:06.4, and being third man on the Tiger 880-yard relay quintet. Al Buffington easily downed all competition in the mile run, his best time being 4 min., 42.5 sec, in the league finals. Two seasoned seniors, Bob DeWeese and Don Harnish, regularly took top place in the century, 220-yard dash, and the 440-yard runs. Handling the shot put work were Bob Andrews and Bill Simons. Most versatile trackster was Dave Hirschler, a junior, who ran the 880, was second man on the relay team ,and established a new school record of 54 ft. 6 in. in the 8-pound shot, breaking a twenty-year mark.

In the Bee division, sophomore John Watson proved to be the outstanding 660-yard run man in Southern California. Among his achievements was the setting of a new school record in his pet event of 1 min. 25.1 sec. He was unbeaten during the season except at the CIF finals when he was edged out by less than six inches. In the hurdles, Ray Taylor was the standout, setting another school record of 13.6 sec. in the 120-low hurdles. Captain Lewis Simpson, unbeaten in league competition in the high jump, and Dick Vanderhoof, who set a new league and school record of 12 ft, 7 in. in the pole vault, will undoubtedly prove valuable to the Black and Orange next year. Art Krause took first place in the Bee shot put with his heave of 47 ft. 7½ in.

In the Bee division, Ned Long was followed by Frank Wilson (1006.8), Harlan Thompson (930), Kenny Guio (903.3), Bill Rider (892.9), Robin Campbell (880.5), and Harry Guyer (864). The Class C was taken by Jim MacDonald (868.2), with Jack Sorenson (863.9), John Porter (850.5), Ross Swickard (837.3), and David Flohr (834.3) close behind. In the Dees, only fifteen boys competed, Pete Welsh coming out on top with 981.7, thirty points ahead of his nearest competitor, George Yusa (950.8).

The class Cee division captain, Keith Harnish, was outstanding in the high jump. Donovan Davis was the league's prominent century man, setting a new league and school record of 10.4 sec. Other capable Cee men were Tom Oury, Henly Odano, Pete Pfeiffer, Bob Watson, and Bill Yamanaka.

For the fellows who are unable to compete in interscholastic sports for various reasons, the athletic department annually sponsors a decathlon which all boys are required to enter. In the 1941 competition, Ned Long set an all-time school record by collecting 1064.2 points out of a possible 1000. Right behind Ned was Ken Donnelly, with 1034 points to take the A division. Other runner-ups were Glenn Lashbrook (949.7), George Flynn (932), Bill Hayward (919.5), Dick Haverstock (891), and Dick Kuck (879.5).

Baseball Champs

For the first time in twenty-seven years, South Pasadena's baseball squad ended the season with a league crown in its possession. Coach C. Merrill Green's Tiger horsehiders won eight league contests, and were defeated but twice this season to take the San Gabriel Valley League first place position. In CIF Play-offs, the Tigers were edged, 17 to 16, by Bonita High School. The game was a twelve-inning affair.

When Coach Green called for baseball practice this year, he was greeted with seven returning lettermen, but had no pitchers. Three green men—Tom Ryan, Ken Galpin, and Bill Herron—were soon moulded into A-1 chuckers, and pitched fine ball all season. Captain Tom Fleischman acted as the man behind the iron mask. Bill Harper snagged the balls on the initial sack, Jack McNevin kept up the team's spirit on second base, Dick Schattinger scooped up the balls in the shortstop position,and Frank Stunden guarded the hot corner. This snappy infield executed 12 double plays during the season. Working out regularly in the outfield were Ed Tufts, right fielder; Frank Frericks, center fielder; and Bill Pond, left fielder. Bob Autrey, Allen Wing, and Don Tepper filled in as substitutes when needed, and did excellent jobs.

The Jayvee baseball squad, under the guidance of Coach Arthur Bothe, wound up the season in second place in the league, dropping only one tilt the entire season. This is the first time in over thirty years that South Pasadena's Jayvee aggregation has made such an impressive showing in league competition.

Golf Swimming

Unable to find sponsored competition in the San Gabriel Valley League, both A, Bee, and Cee swimming teams and the golf team were forced to free lance this year, picking up competition at will.

Coached by Russell Adams, all classes of the Orange and Black tanksters enjoyed better than average success, downing such squads as Burbank, Jacob Riis, and Huntington Park. However, the lack of experience took due toll. Giving a consistent showing in the fifty, the relay, and the medley was Captain Haze Wallace. Co-captain Andy Armstrong proved unbeatable in the backstroke competition. Gordon Jackson and Dick Evans were valuable men in the Bee squad; Joe Costello and Howard Beeman proved outstanding among the Cees.

Tennis Champs

Coach Harry Swart continued his development of an unbroken line of top-notch net outfits, his 1941 edition retaining the San Gabriel Valley League championship, dropping but one contest to Monrovia co-champs.

Taking care of the singles competition were Kenny Wilson, George Kinkle, Peter Welsh, Verne Robinson and Bill Mowry. Captain Jack Bradford, a three-year standout, teamed with Ellsie Donnell to handle the first doubles. Paul Byrne and Marvin McClain, and Art Krause and Garry Dulin also did doubles work.

The Tiger junior varsity squad ended up the season in second place behind Montebello. Leading his team in the singles was Captain Semmes Gordon. Other singles contenders were Ralph Wood, Harold Bresnan, Dan Fuller, and Carl Von Buelow. Doubles teams were Bob Vaught-Donal Duncan; Lane Newman-Ken Nordskog; Reg Robinson-Gene Robison.

N A S "S" Club

Providing a bond between the interscholastic athletic activities and the student body are the school's two lettermen's organizations, the "S" Club and the National Athletic Scholarship Society. Besides being in charge of regulating the wearing of letter sweaters, the S Club has sponsored a varied program of service and social activities throughout the past year. The N.A.S. club, an honorary society for athletes maintaining high scholastic standard, remained inactive.

Capably guiding the destinies of the S Club were Don Harnish, president; Ed Thacher, vice-president; and Bill Nairne, secretary-treasurer. Coach C. Merrill Green handled the advisory duties. Highlight of the season for the S Club was the successful school dance with the theme "National Defense", held jointly with the Boys' League on May 17.

Dear Carol.
Well we will finally be able to forget school period.
Have wishing you all the luck in the world.
Beverly Hassett.

Managers

Another year of fun in athletics has drawn to a close, with Miss Ruth E. Dix and Miss Thelma K. Beggs, girls' physical education instructors, having coached us in the ways of good sportsmanship, so essential to the happiness of the girls under their guidance.

In addition to the class and after-school team sports of volleyball, speedball, basketball, hockey, and softball, individual sports, such as tennis, bowling, riding, and badminton furnished every girl with sufficient amount of activity to keep her interested in athletics.

Heading each sport—both team and individual—were managers, who took charge of each season, under the advisership of the two gym teachers. Managing the volleyball season was Beverly Hassett; speedball, Ramona ZuTavern; basketball, Grace Atkinson; hockey, Ruth Williams; and softball, Elaine Hogan. (The latter sport comes too late in the year to be included in the annual.) Heading the individual sports, in which we participated during after-school hours, were Joan Falconer, tennis; Virginia Minder, bowling; Betty Speik and Pat Murphy, riding; and Marian Hargrave, golf. These girls, composing the GAA Board, had complete charge of the annual spreads which close each season.

SP Club

Under the guidance of Miss Thelma Beggs, the SP Club, honorary athletic club for girls at South Pasadena, has completed another year of fun and sports. Officers of the organization included Marjorie Cline, president; and Catherine Allen, secretary-treasurer. To be eligible for the SP Club, one must have made at least one varsity, must be outstanding in sports, and possess exceptional sportsmanship.

The Girls' Athletic Association is an organization for girls interested in sports who have turned out for after-school games. Heading the club were Dorothy Cline, president; Carol Kelley, vice-president; Esther Hall, secretary; and Betty Cockle, treasurer.

Pepsters

With the presence of three song leaders, Beatrice Boettiger, Doris Colt, and Margaret Thomson, the girls of SPHS were well represented at all playdays when these three lead us in songs.

Helping to boost school spirit was the girls' Drill Team, composed of 64 girls under the direction of Rosemary Flohr, who performed at three of the night football games on Roosevelt Field. When drilling, the girls were uniformly dressed all in white and wore orange caps. The team was started this year by Miss Thelma Beggs.

Tennis

This year Joan Falconer managed the tennis season, the team defeating the Alhambra and Montebello girls' teams. We returned victorious from all of the playdays in which we competed. Two cups were presented to the girls this year, one to the winner of the singles and one to the winner of the doubles tournament. We also participated in the annual Live Oaks Tennis Tournament, and were winners of a cup.

Bowling

Barbara Holley conceived the idea this year of forming a girls' bowling squad, with Virginia Minder acting as manager. Each Wednesday the group played at the South Pasadena Bowling Center.

Varsity: Norton, Atkinson, Wood, Falconer, Ogden, Smith, Herbert.

Volleyball

Starting off the girls' sports season was volleyball, under the managership of Beverly Hassett, with 102 of us out for the after-school games. Each period was represented with both an "A" and "Bee" team, the girls being divided according to their skill and knowledge of the sport. Sixth period walked off with the school championship in the varsity division.

As usual, the varsity was announced by Miss Dix at the volleyball spread, held at the close of the season. This procedure was followed in every sport. The volleyball varsity consisted of Jean Dorland, Barbara Ogden, Georgia Smith, Grace Atkinson, Dorothy Herbert, Janet Wood, Joan Falconer, Beverly Norton, and Carol Kelley.

Speedball

Ramona ZuTavern headed the speedball season this year, with 62 girls turning out for the games after school. Period 6 won the school championship in this field sport, rapidly becoming one of the favorite activities for women, as shown by the large turnout.

Varsity: Allen, Falconer, Lane, Hawes, Dorland.

Basketball

With one of the largest turnouts in the history of the school, basketball, under the capable managership of Grace Atkinson, enjoyed one of its most successful seasons. There were 108 girls who came out en masse to participate in the after-school games. Due to the large number of us desiring to play, we were divided into "A" and "B" squads, according to our skill and knowledge of the game.

The A and Bee varsities were both announced at the basketball spread, and those girls selected for the A team were Wilma Lane, Anne Dorland, and Joan Falconer, forwards; Catherine Allen, Dorothy Hawes, and Esther Hall, guards. Beverly Hassett and Grace Atkinson received honorable mention for guard and forward positions, respectively.

The Bee varsity was composed of Doris Eldred, Cecile Taylor, and Shirley Gastreich, forwards; Lorena Fagan, Edith Mellen, and Jackie Melgard, guards.

First period captured the A championship, while sixth period took the Bee division.

After-school Hockey. Row 1—Williams, Gillette, Rogers, Bridenbecker, Shaw, Erdman, Hassett, Dorland, Hassett. Row 2—M. Cline, Cockle, D. Hockey

Under the direction of Ruth Williams, a successful field hockey season was carried out, with a large turnout for both after-school games and the annual hockey play day held at Griffith Park. For a while rain held back the season, but despite the unusual weather, approximately 100 girls turned out for the games.

A new idea was inaugurated at the annual hockey spread, as each of the 70 girls present participated in the entertainment. We wore slacks and after dinner journeyed to the girls' gym, where we enjoyed an artificial campfire and danced the Virginia Reel.

Riding. MacDougall, Walter, Murphy, Stay.

Golf Badminton Riding

Three after-school activities that we enjoyed this year were golf, riding, and badminton. Marian Hargrave headed the golf season, with the girls meeting once a week, playing at the Pasadena Municipal Park Golf Course.

Betty Speik and Pat Murphy were the co-managers of the riding group. These girls met every Thursday, and rode in the Arroyo, horses being furnished by the Arroyo Seco Stables.

Badminton was headed by Beverly Norton, who took charge of the two badminton tournaments. The first was a mixed doubles tournament held in the fall, while the second was a girls' singles tournament held in the spring. These managers made their presentations at the baseball spread, which officially closed all girls' sports for the year.
